PSALM 116. Dilexi, quoniam

I AM well pleased – * that the LORD hath heard the voice • of my prayer;

2. That he hath inclined his • ear unto me; * therefore will I call upon him as long • as I live.

3. The snares of death compass•ed me round about, * and the pains of hell gat hold • upon me.

4. I shall find trouble and heaviness; and I will call upon the • Name of the LORD; * O LORD, I beseech thee, deli•ver my soul.

5. Gracious is the • LORD, and righteous; * yea, our God • is merciful.

6. The LORD pre•serveth the simple: * I was in misery, and • he helped me.

7. Turn again then unto thy • rest, O my soul; * for the LORD hath • rewarded thee.

8. And why? thou hast deliver•ed my soul from death, * mine eyes from tears, and my feet • from falling.

¶ Glory be &c. is not said here, nor at the end of any Psalm or Canticle in the Office of the Dead.

PSALM 120. Ad Dominum

WHEN I was in trouble I called upon the • LORD, * and • he heard me.

2. Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying • lips, * and from a • deceitful tongue.

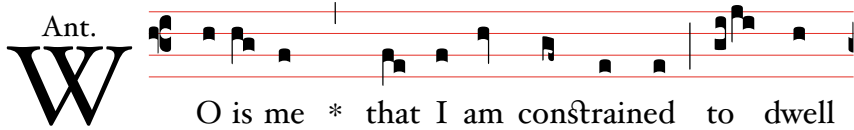

3. What reward shall be given or done unto thee, thou false • tongue? * even mighty and sharp arrows, with • hot burning coals.

4. Woe is me, that I am constrained to dwell with • Mesech * and to have my habitation among the tents • of Cedar!

5. My soul hath long dwelt among • them * that are ene•mies unto peace.

6. I labour for peace; but when I speak unto them there•of, * they make them ready • to battle.

PSALM 121. Levavi oculus

I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the • hills; * from whence com•eth my help?

2. My help cometh even from the • LORD, * who hath made heaven and earth.

3. He will not suffer thy foot to be • moved; * and he that keepeth thee • will not sleep.

4. Behold, he that keepeth • Israel * shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5. The LORD himself is thy • keeper; * the LORD is thy defence upon • thy right hand;

6. So that the sun shall not burn thee by • day, * neither • the moon by night.

7. The LORD shall preserve thee from all • evil; * yea, it is even he that • shall keep thy soul.

8. The LORD shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming • in, * from this time forth • for evermore.

PSALM 130. De profundis

OUT of the deep have I called unto thee, O • LORD; * - • Lörd, hear my voice.

2. O let thine ears consider • well * the • voice of my complaint.

3. If thou, LORD, wilt be extreme to mark what is done a•miss, * O Lord, who • may abide it?

4. For there is mercy with • thee; * therefore shalt • thou be feared.

5. I look for the LORD; my soul doth wait for • him; * in his • word is my trust.

6. My soul fleeth unto the • Lord * before the morning watch,
I say, be•fore the morning watch.

7. O Israel, trust in the LORD, for with the LORD there is • mercy, * and with him is plente•ous redemption.

8. And he shall redeem • Israel * - • -from all his sins.

PSALM 138. Confitebor tibi

I WILL give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole • heart; *
even before the gods will I sing praise • unto thee.

2. I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy Name, because of thy loving-kindness and • truth; * for thou hast magnified thy Name and thy word a•bove all things.

3. When I called upon thee, thou heardest • me; * and enduedst my soul • with much strength.

4. All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O • LORD; * for they have heard the words • of thy mouth.

5. Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the • LORD, * that great is the glo•ry of the LORD.

6. For though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the
• lowly; * as for the proud, he beholdeth them • afar off.

7. Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh
• me; * thou shalt stretch forth thy hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies; and thy right hand • shall save me.

8. The LORD shall make good his loving-kindness toward • me;

PSALM 146. Lauda, anima mea

PRAISE the LORD, O my soul; while I live will I praise the LORD; * yea, as long as I have any being, I will sing praises unto my God.

2. O put not your trust in princes, nor in any child of man; * for there is no help in them.

3. For when the breath of man goeth forth he shall turn again to his earth, * and then all his thoughts perish.

4. Blessed is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, * and whose hope is in the LORD his God;

5. Who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that therein is; * who keepeth his promise for ever;

6. Who helpeth them to right that suffer wrong; * who feedeth the hungry.

7. The LORD looseth men out of prison; * the LORD giveth sight to the blind.

8. The LORD helpeth them that are fallen; * the LORD careth for the righteous.

9. The LORD careth for the strangers, he defendeth the fatherless and widow: * as for the way of the ungodly, he turneth it upside down.

10. The LORD thy God, O Syon, shall be King for evermore, * and throughout all generations.

℣. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lórd. ℞. And let light perpetual shine upon thém.

℣. From the gates of héll. ℞. Deliver their souls, O Lórd.

¶ At an Obít, or a Month's mind, four Collects are said, viz. ij, (or iij), v, & vj.

¶ On All Souls' Day, one Collect is said, viz. vj.

i. When the Body is present.

O GOD, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive our humble petitions for the soul of thy servant N. whom thou hast this day bidden to depart this life: deliver him not into the hands of the enemy, neither forsake him at the last, but give thy holy Angels charge concerning him, that they may bear him into the land of the living; and forasmuch as he hath hoped and believed in thee, grant that he may be counted worthy to rejoice in the fellowship of thy Saints in glory.

ij. At an Obit, or Year's mind.

O GOD, the Lord of all mercy and forgiveness, grant unto the soul of thy servant N., the Year's mind of whose burial we have in remembrance, a time of refreshing, a quiet resting-place, and the glory of light everlasting.

iij. At a Month's Mind.

O GOD, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive: look favourably on the soul of thy servant N., and grant him remission of all his sins; that being loosed from the bands of death, he may attain unto life eternal.

iv. For Bishops.

O GOD, who didst call thy servants to the Apostolick priesthood, and account them worthy of the Episcopal dignity: grant that with them whose office they bore awhile on earth they may evermore abide in joy and felicity.

v. For Brethren & Sisters.

O GOD, the Bestower of pardon, and Author of man's salvation: we humbly beseech thy clemency on behalf of the brethren and sisters of our Congregations who have passed out of this world: that through the intercession of the blessed and ever-Virgin Mary, of blessed Michael the Archangel, and of all the Saints, thou wouldest grant them to attain the fellowship of everlasting blessedness.

vj. General Prayer.

O GOD, the Creator and Redeemer of all the faithful: grant unto the souls of thy servants departed the remission of all their sins, that through devout supplications they may obtain the pardon which they have always desired. Who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest God, for ever and ever. R. Amen.

V. May they rest in peace. R. Amen.

¶ If the Dirge follow immediately, 'May the rest in peace' is not said here.

COME, ye faithful Loud exult, with joy exceeding,
 Al-le-lu-ya! Monarchs' Monarch, From a Virgin-womb proceeding, Might-y wonder! 2. Angel of the Counsel, here, Sun from star, he doth appear, born of Maiden: Sun that never knoweth night, Star for ev-er gleaming bright, Lustrous ever. 3. As a star its kindred ray, Mary doth her

Child display, Like in nature: Still undimm'd the star shines on, And the Virgin bears a Son Pure as ever. 4. Lebanon his cedar tall To the hyssop of the wall Now conformeth:

Word on high, he doth as-sume Human flesh in Mary's womb, God in-carnate. 5. Though E-saias had foreshewn, Though the Syn-agogue had known, Truth the heathen do not own, Blind remaining: If these prophets speak in vain, Let earth heed a Gentile strain, And from mystick Sib-yl gain Light in darkness. 6. No longer then delay; Doubt not what legends say; Why be cast a-way, A race forlorn? Turn and this Child behold— That very Son of old In God's Writ foretold, A Maid hath borne. Amen.
